TRAMLINES 2012 – RECOMMENDED BANDS

¡Quiobo! Here's a list of recommendations we have compiled for you. Suggestions come courtesy of our writers, some twitter followers, promoters and the bands too! There are loads more bands, check the official announcements (or the official programme) to see all your options.

Now, we do have a few recommendations for you:

Dr Sketchy's Anti-Art School: PRISM and Dr Sketchy's Anti-Art School are collaborating with Museums Sheffield to do a very special night on Friday 20th. An alternative drawing session with local artists selected by PRISM, the Anti-Art School will also have live music (Mad Colours & Splashh). A classy* way to start your Tramlines experience. *#Pork in limited amount.

The Busker Bus: Departing from The Hop in Devonshire Green (that's the Main Stage), you can take this double decker bus to two different destinations. The bus includes bands doing acoustic songs. We recommend catching Screaming Maldini, The Payroll Union, Firesuite and Cats:For:Peru, but then again, catch any band, it's a lovely experience (and reminds me of México City's own buskers!

The Folk Forest: A 2 day event in Endcliffe Park. Take the Alpharoom.com Busker Bus route for this. It's a refreshing change from the hustle and bustle of the city centre, with the relaxed environment of Endcliffe Park. We need to recommend you catch The Payroll Union, Joe Banfi, Big Eyes Family Players and Louis Romégoux.

Signals Festival: A one day special on Saturday 21st of July. If you fancy great electronica and want to learn more about the industry, get yourself down to Yellow Arch Studios. Panels, sessions and sets will also be awaiting. Our choice cuts are: Borland, Veí, From the Kites of San Quenting, The Black Dog, Objekt & Drumro[ll]. Take the Real Ale and Blues route of the Busker Bus for this one.
